

Debate Competition

Might Is Right Newsletter

A discussion, as of a public question in an assembly, involving opposing viewpoints was carried-out in the school through ISA activity. It made the children as well as teachers learn the importance of having a particular type of a government in a country.

This debate topic made them to really think, understand the topic in its entirety, get to the bottom of the pros and cons and in the end giving suitable closure.

Mock campaign

During the activity the students learnt about Democratic and Non-Democratic countries and tried having a replica or imitation of vote appeal for the voting system. The students enthusiastically participated in it and hence proved it to being a successful one. It mimics the behavior of real voting system in controlled ways.

DEBATE SYNOPSIS

A formal discussion of 'DEMOCRATIC' and 'NON-DEMOCRATIC' countries was held by Ms. Tasneem and Ms. Amreen in the form of a debate at Anjuman-I-Islam's Begum Sharifa Kalsekar Girls' High School.

Through logical consistency, the students enthusiastically participated in the debate which carried-out the educational process of learning the features of Democratic and Non-Democratic countries. The major goal of this was to study and identify the importance of both the forms of government with equal ease.

The question for the debate was introduced by the democratic group, whereby the speakers were not permitted to insult other speakers or divert from the topic.

Teams were intriguing each other and were judged, based on the concept of 'content, style and strategy.' The session ended with conclusion by both teams.

DEMOCRATIC

NON-DEMOCRATIC

Newsletter

Might Is Right

Building Future Leaders

If your actions inspire others to dream more, learn more, do more and become more, then you are a leader." – John Quincy Adams.

High schools are breeding grounds for future leaders providing opportunities for students to begin their leadership journey through examples of prefect-hood or student club leadership activities. This offers them the opportunity to serve their community and gives them a chance to develop and practice leadership skills. This is in recognition from the school where emphasis is laid on the importance of leadership, teamwork and collective responsibility. Anyone can steer a ship but it takes a leader to chart the course, The price of greatness is responsibility. Anjuman I Islam's Begum Sharifa Kalsekar Girls' English High School, Mumbai Central, conducted the Investiture Ceremony of the Student Council for the academic session 2016-2017 on the 30th of June in the school premises to honour the incoming senates and felicitate the outgoing ones. In order to inculcate leadership qualities amongst its students for the smooth conduct of activities, to espouse confidence and a sense of responsibility among them, the Investiture Ceremony thus marked the inaugural of the New Student Council; Khan Anzala Anwar was nominated as the Head Girl respectively

With the vigorous beats of the drums and the playing of the royal march band, the new council marched in procession up the aisle and on to the stage. They stood upright with their heads held high and their hearts in humility as each picked up their precious flags. The school Head Girl, the Sports Captains and the House Captains carried the school flag, sports flag and the house flags respectively. The Headmistress, Ms. Fauzia Ansari inaugurated the event and administered the oath of office and the members of the council pledged to adhere to the values and principles upheld by the school. She urged the new Student Council members to become role models, be infused with the spirit to create a positive influence with their service as leaders

She wanted them to be responsible and dedicated and try to do something good for the school with their innovations. She urged them to encourage their fellow students to be in sync with the school. She congratulated the newly appointed office bearers and reminded them to diligently shoulder responsibilities that lay ahead with dedication and devotion. Apart from their duty towards school, these reps also pledged their service to the nation's larger social causes. The house teachers pinned up the sashes and offered badges of their respective houses. The event ended on a note of positivity and willingness, with the senate promising to do the very best they can. They were ready to encounter all the challenges that came their way, receive criticism in the most humble manner, yet stand tall and uphold the dignity and integrity of the senate. They vouched that they would be the best senate to be remembered on ages to come. The ceremony was concluded with the rendering of the School Anthem and the National Anthem by the staff and the students.

Newsletter

Might Is Right

Powerpoint Presentation

No matter what the topic, a PowerPoint presentation can help you communicate an idea to an audience. It builds the information and helps one present the topic with clarity.

Voting is the most precious right of every citizen, and we have a moral obligation to ensure the integrity of our voting process

Voting system

Teaching children about the importance of voting and the importance of voting in all elections having a lasting impact on future voters. Civics is usually not emphasized or adequately taught in many classrooms, which is one reason why young adults are often apathetic towards the voting and election process.

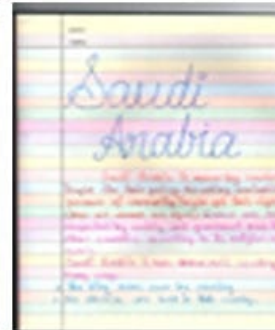

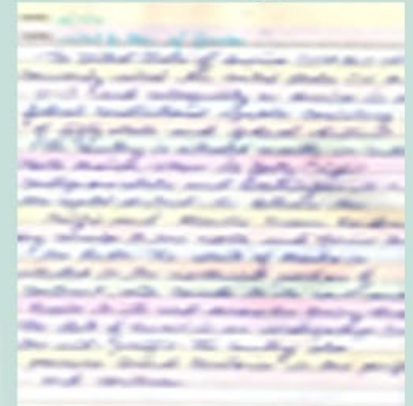

One way we can increase the voting rate of young voters is to do a better job of teaching them about the voting and election process throughout their school careers. Teaching children about the basics of voting while they are in the elementary grades expands their knowledge and can help children become more responsible, contributing citizens as adults.

Newsletter • Might Is Right

Scrapbook

Scrapbook is an art for preserving, presenting, arranging information in the form of a book, box, card. It includes photographs, printed media, and artwork. The students decorated their Scrapbook as a hobby, commonly practiced in many parts of the world.

Newsletter

Might Is Right

Slogan

A slogan is a memorable motto or phrase used in a clan, political, commercial, religious, and other context as a repetitive expression of an idea or purpose, with the goal of persuading members of the public or a more defined target group

The slogans had the attributes of being memorable, very concise and appealing to all.

